

Bega District News Friday 25/01/2013

Page: Section: General News Region: Bega NSW, AU Circulation: 2540 Type: Regional 232 69 sq.cms Size:

press clip

Pedal power at Tathra Wharf to Waves

Josh Bartlett

Waves weekend.

While there will be Life Saving Club. plenty of action at Tathra Beach, participants are ue after the ride with a bar- a "bike ride, not a race". also reminded they can hit becue the roads tomorrow.

The 30km Energy Bike Ride, spon-Tarraganda fire shed.

the opportunity to check package out some of the best bush- Crackenback Resort. land scenery the Sapphire Coast has to offer.

ticipants will ride through events, with registrations 2waves.com/ Tarraganda, over Doctor closing at 6pm.

LOCAL cycling enthu- George Mountain, down siasts are invited to grab Goats Knob Road, across committee spokeswoman their bikes and take part in to Mimosa National Park, Therese Wheatley said the Tathra Wharf to before finishing with a the bike ride was an essencruise to the Tathra Surf tial part of the weekend.

> and cold Clean the club.

There are major ransored by Bega Cheese, dom prizes to be won,

Everyone will also have

Tathra Wharf to Waves

However, Wheatley The action will contine emphasised the event was Wheatley said the refreshments available at 30km Clean Energy Bike Ride began from humble beginnings 3-4 years ago.

Tathra resident Rob will begin at 5pm at the including a Tathra Beach White and friends rode and Bike mountain bike regularly on Saturdays Cyclists will then gain and a weekend and dinner and, thanks to word of Lake mouth, the event began to evolve.

For more information an opportunity to sign up about the Wharf to Waves, Starting at the shed, par- for Sunday's swimming visit www.tathrawharf

• Preparing to take part in the 2012 30km Clean Energy Bike Ride are (back, from left) Rob White, Kathy Dack, Ron McCartney, Matthew Nott, Lewis McCartney, (front) David Scott, Anthony Dack and Patty McCartney.